

Basyle 'Boz' Tchividjian, a founding member and Executive Director of G.R.A.C.E (Godly Response to Abuse in the Christian Environment). Born in Vevey, Switzerland,.

Boz grew up in south Florida, where he served as Assistant State Attorney, Seventh Judicial Circuit (1994-2001). While in that position, he was chief Prosecutor, Sexual Crimes Division, where he gained much experience in cases involving sexual abuse and harassment.

In 2003, Boz helped found G.R.A.C.E. to educate and equip the faith community to correctly respond to sexual abuse disclosures, while also providing practical guidance to churches on how to protect children. G.R.A.C.E provides confidential consultations to churches, schools, & other organizations which are struggling with issues involving sexual abuse.

Boz and his family live near Lynchburg, Virginia where he serves as a law professor at Liberty University School of Law.

He is blessed to be a grandson of Dr. Billy Graham and recently published his first book entitled, Invitation - Billy Graham and the Lives God Touched

- 4.How do we care for the survivors of abuse in our churches?
- 5.How do we minimize the opportunities for abuse?

- 6.How do we live out the Gospel as it relates to abuse?
- And more including stories.
Some will encourage you.

Some will break your heart.

All will teach you how to prevent child abuse in the church.

There will be time for questions and answers .

Did you know?

1 in 4 women by the age of 18 will be abused sexually.

1 in 6 men by the age of 18 will be sexually abused.

Many abuse survivors attend church looking for healing, hope and help to contend with their past.

Some sexual predators look at the church as a very good place to ply their trade because of the emphasis on grace, forgiveness and mercy.

Men who molest children average between 20 to 150 victims.
